Feasting Harry's day

The sparkly wintery day passionately arrived,
The day is leaving as if it came in a rush,
No time to feast this petty lovable day.

Friendship popped up in a murky feasting day,
No belief that a strong unity was cropping up,
Though the day is now beating drums.

Fireworks throbbing in our hearts,
Pounding as if it was a war,
Thrilling every single thar.

Crakers!
Maroons!
And bangers off!

The havocs of love

The wreckage desperately sinking
The fervor unintentionally fading
The warmth vanishing
And the fondness frantically fleeing

Lost in the havocs of love
Left alone in sorrow
No way to look back
No way to howl for affection

Hopelessness bursts forth in peace
When that fervor entails distress
Desperateness meekly dies out
And love lastly wears out!
